Club Features Children in Speech Contest

Children of the South Bay Toastmasters Club 280 were featured in a Christmas program at the last meeting, W. Howard Smith, president, announced.

Impromptu table topics on "What I Want for Christmas" were conducted by Bob Norland of El Segundo who interviewed children in Santa Claus fashion. Tied for children's contest winner were Cheryl Dunn, six, of Torrance and Elizabeth Eadie, four, of Hollywood Riviera.

Winner of the adult speech contest was Fred Strible of Manhattan Beach speaking on "How the Grinch Stole Christmas," and Spud Monahan who took second place honors with his talk on "Christmas at Our House."

Informal speaking and conference techniques are slated for consideration by South Bay Toastmasters club in January meetings. Those interested in attending may obtain information by calling Fred Strible, FRontier 4-4990.
